

Integrated Land Use conference 2025
‘The role of Land Management in tackling the Biodiversity Crisis’

Short programme – full programme coming soon

Tuesday 25th March

Introduction & welcome from UHI

Field group activities in Dalnahaitnach (rewilding, natural regeneration, capercaillie, deer management, riparian)

Talk and discussion: Challenging the status quo

Wednesday 26th March

Keynote talk: Contribution of community landowners in tackling biodiversity crisis

Field group activities at and around a distillery exploring i) how industry deals with their biodiversity plan and their interaction with the supply farmers and ii) the use of apps to aid biodiversity planning.

Talk and group discussion: Trade-off between tourism (social behaviour) and biodiversity

Thursday 27th March

Field group activities in Dalnahaitnach (biodiversity hotspots, peatland/catchment/wild fisheries, land management)

Keynote talk: Biodiversity and peatland research

Panel discussion: Biodiversity credits/green finance