

Fees

For students normally domiciled in Scotland, with a term-time address in Scotland, the following fees apply:

This includes

- EU nationals with settled or pre-settled status in the UK,
- EEA/Swiss nationals with settled status in the UK
- EEA/Swiss nationals with pre-settled status who are self-employed or migrant workers in the UK.

	2024-25
Professional certificates (10 credit module)	£292

Rest of UK students

For students normally domiciled in the rest of the UK (England, Wales and N. Ireland) or assessed as rest of the UK for fee status, the following fees apply:

	2024-25
Professional certificates (10 credit module)	£390

Fees are payable in advance each academic year unless otherwise agreed. Fees may be paid in monthly payments during your study, if required.

EU/EEA and Swiss nationals without settled or pre-settled status in the UK

Following the UK's departure from the European Union, the Scottish Government confirmed that EU/EEA and Swiss nationals, who do not have settled or pre-settled status, will be considered as international for fee purposes. These students will get an automatic fee scholarship.

This includes EEA/Swiss nationals with pre-settled status who are not self-employed or migrant workers in the UK.

	2024-25	with scholarship
Professional certificates (10 credit module)	£555	£417

International students

For students who do not normally reside in the UK or European Union, studying online from their home country, or assessed as international for fee status, the following fees apply:

	2024-25
Professional certificates (10 credit module)	£555

A no fee increase guarantee is available for self-funding full-time and structured part-time rest of the UK, EU and international postgraduate students for continuous study for the same award, up to the permitted standard time limit for the relevant award.

This course is not available for international students requiring Student Route visa sponsorship to study in the UK.

Fees are payable in advance each academic year unless otherwise agreed. Fees may be paid in monthly payments during your study, if required.
